STONEWALL HALL

Protecting
Montana's Past,
Building Its Future

Where Montana Began

Constructed in 1864, Stonewall Hall is Montana's original legislative building — the very place where the Territory's earliest lawmakers gathered to define a new government and chart the future of the West.

Within these walls, ideas were debated, compromises struck, and the groundwork laid for the state we call home today.

At the Cross Roads of History

Over the years, Stonewall Hall evolved — serving as a saloon, a retail storefront, and eventually the Dudley Garage. Through each transformation, its spirit endured as a cornerstone of Virginia City's story and Montana's identity.

The Next Chapter

Thanks to early supporters, critical stabilization work is now complete, saving the structure from collapse. But to fully restore Stonewall Hall and return it to public use, we need your help.

Once at risk of collapse, Stonewall Hall now stands strong thanks to the generosity of early supporters. Now, we must work together to gain support needed to complete the restoration to return this cornerstone of Montana's heritage to its rightful place of honor.

Project PHASES

1

Stabilization

$2.1M

Ensuring Stonewall Hall's Survival

COMPLETED

Thanks to early donors and partners, essential stabilization work was completed – including foundation repairs, structural reinforcement, and masonry restoration. This critical effort halted deterioration and laid the foundation for full restoration.

Completed work included:

- Removal and replacement of front façade.
- Replacement of all load-bearing beams and structure.
- Complete restoration of all brick and rock work on exterior surfaces.

2

Restoration

$5.75M

Reviving Montana's Original Legislative Chambers

This phase focuses on restoring the building's historic second floor – the original meeting place of Montana's Territorial Legislature. Handcrafted woodwork and historically accurate finishes will revive the setting where our earliest laws were written, while modern safety and accessibility upgrades ensure long-term use.

Planned work includes:

- Interior restoration of both Stonewall Hall and Dudley Garage
- Foundation and flooring replacement, and new interior finishes
- Sewer, water and electric tie-ins
- Exterior completion including sidewalks and boardwalks

3

Revitalization & Sustainability Bringing History Back to Life

$750K

The final phase will transform Stonewall Hall into a living center for civic education, history, and community connection — featuring interpretive exhibits and flexible public spaces. This phase also includes creating a permanent endowment to fund ongoing maintenance and educational programming, ensuring that this cornerstone of Montana's heritage remains vibrant and relevant for generations to come.
